Autism Friendly Assessment

Please complete the assessment below of current business practices and training:

Check all that apply:

Training:

- Offer an informational training about autism for our employees and volunteer staff.
- Offer training about autism on how to recognize and respond to situations that may arise (i.e. sensory overload, communication challenges, change in routine, etc.)
- Offer training on how to go about providing accommodations for people with autism and their caregivers.

Customer/Client experience:

- Offer a welcoming environment where individuals with autism and their caregivers feel respected and welcome at my business.
- Offer supports and/or accommodations to ensure a safe and welcoming environment for people with autism. (i.e. sensory sensitivities, alternative communication options, visual supports, etc.)
- Help people with autism to understand the services by providing clear instructions, processes and visual supports that can be more easily understood.

Autism awareness and engagement opportunities:

- Provide access to information or resources about autism. (i.e. post cards, brochures, etc.)
- Offer autism awareness activities for staff, volunteers, clients, and other stakeholders.
- Support or sponsor local autism awareness activities or nonprofit that serves people with autism.
- Recognize staff who work as champions for people with autism.

Here is how my business or organization strives to be autism-friendly:
